

Sarah Louise

SPRING SUMMER 2018

Few things are truly timeless, but those that include concepts such as care, love and inspiration. These are qualities that manifest themselves in many ways, ways often subtle and even, on occasions, almost intangible.

When creating a new Sarah Louise collection there is an awareness that timelessness is one of the enduring things. Outstanding quality and design is something many of us recognise on an almost instinctive level. Quality, combined with real inspiration, is once again evident in every facet of this collection for Spring/Summer 2018.

Tastes change as do fashion but there are certain aspects of these collections that remain constant, as well as embracing new ideas, the garments presented here have been designed to endure, look fresh, sparkle and stay special for years to come.

At the heart of the collections are people: the people whose mastery of design creates the original concept and those who are involved in the creation of each garment. Take, for example, the level of detail that has long been a distinct feature of the Sarah Louise collections. Such detail is not the work of a machine but of nimble fingers that can embroider, create such wonderful motifs and embellishments.

These are the fruits of skills that pass from generation to generation by individuals who relish the challenges set them by each and every fresh idea. They are creative, from the designer's imagination with the aid of the love and skills of the embroiderers. Consider for a moment the simple button, not only are the buttons here specially sourced but they are attached to each garment by hand stitching with those neat stitches, in turn, often topped by delicate embroidery.

The recipe for creating what is perhaps the finest children's collection of its kind is to start with the very best ingredients in terms of, ideas, skills, fabrics and threads and to have dedicated people blend all those elements together with care, love and imagination.

Enjoy the collection.
